

Dear Sponsor,

We are happy to contact you regarding the 10th annual Hope Now International Back to School Bash. We want to thank you in advance for your consideration in sponsoring such an important charity event and the only one of its kind in Florida. The event is scheduled for August 6, 2016 from 10:00am to 1:00pm. Over the last several years the event has helped over 48,000 children start their school year off with a successful foot forward. Last year, the event positively reflected our sponsors and supporters commitment to the Central Florida community via ABC, CBS, NBC, Fox, Telemundo, Univision, the Orlando Sentinel and other media outlets.

The event attracted nearly 25,000 attendees from five of the surrounding counties, along with 400 volunteers who have helped make this program a success. All contributions from the sponsorship packages will be distributed to directly benefit event attendees. Promotional advertising, branding opportunities, and activities have been strategically planned to enhance our sponsor's opportunity at the event. We look forward to sharing your company's logo and information with the Central Florida community!

Hope Now provides the following services and resources to attendees: information on community resources, valuable health information, free school supplies, free haircuts, free backpacks, fun activities, live entertainment, free health screenings, free immunizations and so much more. Please feel free to contact the Hope Now team at 407-272-4516 to discuss the sponsorship packages in greater detail.
